

Butterflies in a Huang Bao Che

10 GREAT DATES IN A RICKSHAW. 1 FUN NIGHT!

Suadala brings you yet another original cultural concept... An exciting night bringing together a rickshaw ride through Houhai's hutongs, a traditional teahouse, and the famous Chinese Butterfly Lovers (Liangzhu) folk tale!

HOW IT WORKS

Dating in a rickshaw?! How's that work? It's simple, really. Be at the venue on time for a quick introduction to the rules of the exciting evening. Afterwards, climb into the rickshaw and drink in the romantic sights of Houhai. Every 5 minutes, the rickshaws will stop to allow the gentlemen to move to the next rickshaw, while the ladies stay seated. This will go on until all the ladies have talked to all the gentlemen. The evening ends with cocktails back at the teahouse.

VENUE 'The Butterfly Lover's Teahouse'

'The butterfly lovers,' or 'liangzhu,' is a moving folk tale. An epic love story between Liang Shanbo and Zhu Yingtai dating back to the 4th century, it follows the trials of Zhu and Liang's love and culminates in their eternal bliss together as butterflies, never parting forevermore. This is the story that has inspired the owners of 'The Butterfly Lover's Teahouse' to establish this charming traditional Chinese teahouse. Please visit www.huadie.cn for further information.
